

Harrow is an organisation that is upfront in dealing with difficult issues including equalities and we haven't shirked this agenda. We also regularly ask our staff to give us their opinions and their views on issues and involve them in helping us to take the organisation forward.